Europe Council Calls For Economic Union

Plans To Seek American Aid In Creation

Strasbourg, France, Sept. 3.—(AP)—Europe's consultative assembly today called for a European economic union and made plans to seek American aid in its creation.

The union would have a free money market and a single preferential trading system embracing European colonies and empires, and perhaps a single postage stamp.

The assembly of 101 delegates from 12 nations voted overwhelmingly by a show of hands to call upon the ministerial committee, the upper house of the council of Europe, to prepare such a program of economic union. The ministerial committee is to meet here next month to consider the recommendation.

Send Delegation To U.S.

Plans are afoot to send a delegation headed by assembly President Paul-Henri Spaak of Belgium to Washington while the British-American dollar talks are in progress. The delegation's job would be to request tariff cuts and to negotiate for treaty changes—such as the United States' "most favored nation" trade agreements.

In effect, the proposed economic union would extend Britain's preferential trading system — by which trade with her empire and colonies receives favored treatment in tariff rates — to the French, Dutch and Belgian empires and eventually to the other European members of the council — Ireland, Italy, Sweden, Norway, Denmark, Luxembourg, Greece and Turkey.

U.S. Consent Needed

Such a union would run counter to the "most favored nation" treaties these nations now have with the United States. Washington's permission would be necessary before one member could give its neighbors better trading rights than Americans now enjoy.

Britain's socialists voted in favor of a free money market — letting European currencies find their own level with relation to one another — when assured this would not involve removing control of European currencies in their relation to the dollar.

At the same time British conservatives helped carry a proposal that a system of "guaranteed European markets" be set up. Hugh Dalton, British cabinet member, explained this meant that "one country will offer to purchase from another, for a considerable period of time, a definite amount of that country's products."

This was a victory for British labor's planned economy ideas. If carried out it would be a continuation of purchasing agreements between European governments — a form of bilateral trading rather than general multilateral trading favored by the United States.

Tropical Storm Turns Into Full Fledged Hurricane

Miami, Fla. Sept. 3.—(AP)—The new tropical disturbance in the Caribbean sea has developed into a full fledged hurricane with winds up to 75 miles per hour.

A navy hurricane hunter aircraft, with one of its engines useless after a propeller ran wild—reported the rapidly developing storm had formed a definite eye with winds near the center at hurricane velocity (75 mph).

The Miami weather bureau said the storm center was located about 250 miles north northwest of San Juan, Puerto Rico, or approximately 900 miles east southeast of Miami.

It was moving in a west northwest or northwest direction about 12 to 15 miles per hour.

Grady Norton, chief storm forecaster, said the storm is "increasing rapidly in intensity."

Air Force Wants Plane Factories Out Of Big Cities

Washington, Sept. 3.—(AP)—A quiet but persistent effort of the air force to get warplane factories moved out of potential bombing target zones will be stepped up next week.

Air Secretary W. Stuart Symington is scheduled to fly to Seattle on Tuesday, accompanied by production experts and other officials of his department, to talk with the Boeing Aircraft company.

Officials explain that in the case of the Boeing plant or any of the other large factories the air force's primary interest is in having production of military craft dispersed and moved inland from danger areas along the coasts.

Where the companies build commercial type planes is no business of the air force, they said.

Boy, 17, Is Trapped In Sand For Six Hours

By Gene Sanders
(As Told The Associated Press)

Elkhart, Ind., Sept. 3.—(AP)—I've been staying with Red Peterson about two and a half weeks. We'd been digging a well for a couple of days. We had only about two feet more to go to hit water. Friday afternoon when he said it was time to knock off work.

He started up the ladder first. I was standing on the loose sand on the bottom.

All of a sudden I felt the sand slide down on me. No noise or nothing. It covered me all over. It was only about two minutes, I guess, when Red uncovered my face. I must have passed out, because it seemed like a nightmare, and that I'd wake up any minute.

When I woke up, my mouth and eyes were full of sand and I began spitting sand. As fast as Red would dig it away, it would slide back and cover my face again. And I'd wake up and see Red digging. Finally, it quit sliding and he went away. I guess he was gone only about half an hour to get help, but it seemed like two hours to me. Pretty soon the firemen and the other folks came.

They put a mask on me, but I didn't get much air. Then they dug away some more sand and I got more air.

And a long time after that they got me out. I thought they never would.

When I was first buried, I thought I was going to die. And then all I could think of was how cold and numb my legs were. I couldn't feel a thing in them.

I got some scratches and bruises on my face and some bruises on my legs, otherwise, I'm okay.

Fail In Search For Noah's Ark

SEASONABLE WEATHER FOR MOST OF NATION

Washington, Sept. 3.—(AP)—The Weather Bureau tonight promised "a variety of weather for most of the country" for the Labor Day holiday weekend.

Seasonably warm temperatures were forecast for most of the nation, with showers for many areas. Somewhat cooler weather was predicted for the central plains states.

Three Convicted Of Raping Girl; 2 Sentenced To Die

Tallahassee, Fla. Sept. 3.—(AP)—Three negroes were convicted tonight of a rape that ignited race demonstrations by white mobs in this central Florida area last July.

An all-white circuit court jury found the three guilty of raping a 17-year-old white farmwife but recommended mercy for Charles Greenlee, 16, one of the three charged. Death sentence is mandatory for the other two, Samuel Shepherd and Walter Irvin, both 22. Greenlee will be sentenced to life imprisonment or less by Judge Truman G. Futch.

A fourth suspect, Ernest Thomas, was killed by a posse in northwest Florida several weeks ago.

The rape brought demonstrations by white mobs against negroes at Groveland and other nearby towns in this central Florida farming area. The Florida national guard had to be called to restore order, but not until several negro houses had been fired. The negro population of Groveland fled the town during the disorders.

Chicago Boasts Largest Airline Service Of Cities

Chicago, Sept. 3.—(AP)—Already recognized as the railroad center of the nation, Chicago today boasted of serving the largest number of passengers on scheduled airlines.

Authority for the claim is Oscar E. Hewitt, commissioner of public works, who said "no other airport in the nation has as much traffic" as Chicago's Municipal airport.

Hewitt said the number of passengers using the Municipal airport during the first eight months of 1949 was ahead of the total for the 12 months last year. Between Jan. 1 and Aug. 31, this year, a total of 1,871,001 passengers used the field, compared with 1,574,261 during the same period of 1948, Hewitt said.

Figures compiled by Hewitt showed the Municipal airport handled 172,000 more plane riders in 1948 than did LaGuardia Field, New York.

Girl Killed As Train Hits Bike

Braidwood, Ill., Sept. 3.—(AP)—A Braidwood girl was killed today when her bicycle was struck by a Gulf, Mobile and Ohio passenger train at a grade crossing.

She was Marlene Vrbic, 14, who lived with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Vrbic.

A companion, Elsie Person, told authorities the flasher signals at the crossing were working. She quoted Marlene as saying she was going to "beat the train across."

The girls had spent the afternoon bicycling.

NY Police Ordered To Keep Peace At Robeson Concert

Peekskill, N. Y., Sept. 3.—(AP)—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey today ordered all available state police to the Peekskill area tomorrow to guard against another riot between war veterans and supporters of negro singer Paul Robeson.

Robeson failed to appear at an open-air concert last Saturday when anti-communist veterans clashed with the left-wing singer's audience. At least eight were injured, but Robeson was intercepted by friends before he reached the scene.

He immediately pledged a second effort—scheduled for noon (CST) tomorrow afternoon about a mile from last week's riot scene.

The veterans said they plan to march 25,000 men past the concert location. Robeson supporters called for an audience of 20,000.

More than 300 local law enforcement officers are already mobilized. Dewey called the concert a "pro-communist meeting" but said freedom of speech and assembly must be guaranteed "however hateful the views of some of those who abuse them."

Robeson's supporters arranged for buses to carry adherents from New York City.

The veterans said they would have groups from as far away as New England and Pennsylvania.

The recital is to be held at the old Hollow golf course—no longer used—four miles north of here on Hillside avenue.

Hillside avenue is only 20 feet wide, the 15 veteran groups sponsoring the parade said they will be marching south along it from 11 a.m. "until we get tired."

Six Parachute To Safety As Crash Kills Two Fliers

Fairfield, Calif., Sept. 3.—(AP)—Parachutes saved six men from a crippled air force flying boxcar troop carrier just before the plane crashed last night killing two crewmen.

The C-82 shattered and burned in a marshland near the mouth of the Sacramento river shortly after 10:45 p.m. Pacific Standard Time (12:40 a.m. today, CST)—the time when the pilot radioed that one of his two engines had quit.

The pilot and copilot died in an attempt to bring the plane down safely. They were only 30 miles from their destination of Alameda Naval Air Base on San Francisco bay. The plane had left Lowry Air Force Base, Denver, only a few hours earlier.

Headquarters of Fairfield-Suisun Air Force Base here identified the victims as Lieut. Vess J. Ward, Jr., 26, the pilot, and Lieut. John G. Page, 31, copilot.

None of the survivors was seriously injured.

Bar Association
May Begin Using
Plain Language

St. Louis, Sept. 3.—(AP)—A movement for plain language in legal papers will get some attention at the American Bar association's 72nd annual convention opening Monday.

The idea is to do away with the legalistic doubletalk that only serves to confuse the average layman.

Harrison W. Tweed, head of the American Law Institute, puts it this way: "Lawyers are using eighteenth century phraseology to express twentieth century ideas."

Delegates to the five-day convention will attend an all-day session Wednesday in an effort to find an answer to the problem.

97 Lose Lives On First Of 3-Day Labor Day Holiday

By the Associated Press

Ninety-seven persons lost their lives in accidents across the nation before the Labor Day weekend holiday was one-third over.

A survey from 6 p.m. Friday showed 85 persons killed in highway mishaps, four drowned, and eight dead in miscellaneous accidents by Saturday night.

The highway toll rose steadily as an estimated 33,000,000 cars took celebrators to vacation spots.

The national safety council had made this grim Labor Day prediction:

"Between 6 p.m. (local time) Friday, and 6 p.m. Monday, 280 Americans will die in traffic accidents."

On Labor Day week end last year the traffic death figure was higher than that—293.

The 293, plus 60 persons drowned, and 54 more killed in other mishaps, ran the 1948 holiday's violent death toll up to 407.

In the Chicago area, the president of the Chicago Motor Club, Charles M. Hayes, said that the flight of vacationists to the surrounding playground areas had, on some major roads, topped the flood of last July 4 Independence Day crowds then were among the largest in history.

Poor Man's Bendix Cross-Country Solo Ends In Ohio

Cleveland, Sept. 3.—(AP)—Cartoonist Norman Marsh's "poor man's Bendix" cross-country solo flight ended in a field near Havana, O., today when his Aeronca plane ran out of gas, the Civil Aeronautics Administration reported.

Marsh took off from Los Angeles in the hope of making a non-stop flight to New York City in 20 hours. The CAA said he phoned that he made his forced landing in Huron county, west of Cleveland, without mishap.

The tag "Poor Man's Bendix" was invented by Marsh himself in referring to the flight of his 140 horsepower sedan as compared to the high speed jobs that left Los Angeles this morning.

Britain Told Not To Expect Aid Very Soon

Admits That He Killed Estranged Girl Friend

Dallas, Sept. 3.—(AP)—"I'm not sorry I killed her—I'd do it again," Keith Petersen said thoughtfully today.

"Yes, under the same circumstances, I'd do it again. I loved her for seven years and I lost her. Then I lost my head and shot her."

The 21-year-old college student, son of wealthy parents, was perfectly calm and poised as he related in a jail interview how he fatally wounded his beautiful sweetheart, Carolyn Schofield, yesterday.

"I bent down and picked her up and I kissed her dying lips."

Miss Schofield, 20, was slain in a downtown office building—An the office of a geologist for whom she was a secretary. She and Petersen quarreled for one hour and 45 minutes before he killed her with a brand new pistol. A murder charge was filed against Petersen today.

"I fired six times. I think I got her with five out of six."

An instructor at Southern Methodist University where young Petersen was a junior Journalism student described him as: "neurotic, intellectual, very spoiled and highly intelligent. When he talks about himself you have the feeling he is sitting off on a perch, looking at himself."

"I don't think I am crazy," he said of himself today. "I suppose I did something abominable, but I think I am very sane. But insanity probably will be the plea—I have tried suicide twice, you know. My father thinks I'm as crazy as hell—told me so when he and mother came up here to see me last night."

Yugo Fears No Russian Attack

Belgrade, Yugoslavia, Sept. 3.—(AP)—Yugoslavia today denied it fears any Russian invasion.

A report that it is thinking in terms of a possible Red army attack was called pure guesswork.

An official statement from Marshal Tito's government said:

"On the second of this month, the United Press printed news from official Yugoslav sources" to the effect that the Yugoslav government is supposedly considering the possibility of an invasion of Yugoslavia by Russian troops.

"Only Guesswork"

"It is officially stated that this news to the effect that Yugoslav official circles made such statements is an ordinary fabrication and arbitrary guesswork of the correspondent of the United Press in Belgrade."

(The United Press in New York had no comment on the denial immediately.)

Tito's ministry of information also denied a voice of America broadcast which said Belgrade had complained to the international Danube commission about the presence of an armed Soviet ship on the Danube river last month.

"It is officially announced," the ministry said, "that the news about this complaint is untrue."

Delated Comment

(In New York, a voice of America spokesman declined comment.

(However, the same source said, a voice broadcast today will carry a statement by a Yugoslav spokesman denying that Tito's government had made such a complaint.)

(In Paris, Kirtley Mather, an American professor, said Tito does not expect a Russian attack on Yugoslavia but is prepared for it if it comes. Mather said he had lunch with Tito last week. He quoted the Yugoslav leader as saying he had been on bad terms with Marshal Stalin since 1944.)

Sen. Thomas Wants Details In Costs Of Flying Officials

Washington, Sept. 3.—(AP)—Senator Elmer Thomas (D-Okla.) today curbed demands that Secretary of Defense Johnson give him every detail of what it costs to fly officials in government planes — including President Truman.

The senator called for a list of everybody who had used the former presidential plane "Sacred Cow" when Mr. Truman wasn't aboard. He told Johnson he wants virtually every fact about each plane trip by Johnson at government expense and who went with him.

Thomas, stung by an "economy" letter from Johnson, flung the long list of requests at Johnson in a sharp retort. The secretary had proposed that members of Thomas' armed services subcommittee who plan to fly around the world this fall should use commercial airlines instead of military planes.

Thomas told Johnson that "if savings can be made through denial to congressional committees the use of military planes, a further saving can be made by requiring private airplane service for members of the executive branch of the government."

KILLED BY TREE

Metropolis, Ill., Sept. 3.—(AP)—John Purcell, 48, was killed today when a tree fell and a companion was sawing down a tree when it fell on Purcell's head. The accident occurred near Brookport.

Given Notice She Must Rely On Self

Washington, Sept. 3.—(AP)—For grim months to come, Britain apparently must rely on her dwindling resources to cope with the dollar crisis.

Officials noted this today in measures of possible American aid reported ready to be submitted at the forthcoming top level American-British-Canadian financial conference — they are almost entirely long range in effect.

The meetings have nothing to do with continuing Marshall plan assistance.

Proposals Worked Out

The relief proposals were worked out in a week long preliminary survey by economic experts of the three countries which ended here yesterday. These suggestions are being sent to London and Ottawa this weekend. They will form the basis of an agenda for the main conference opening here Wednesday.

This will bring together the highest cabinet officials of the United States, Britain and Canada in a search for means to cope with the emergency which has clouded post-war recovery prospects for the entire western world.

Several score experts who made the preliminary study failed to come up with any general solution, it was made plain by officials with first hand information.

Many Recommendations

The experts worked out a detailed series of recommendations for consideration of Britain's foreign secretary Ernest Bevin, and Sir Stafford Cripps, chancellor of the exchequer; U. S. secretaries Acheson and Snyder, and Canadians Lester B. Pearson and Douglas Abbott.

Included are reported to be proposals to lower American customs barriers and ease import restrictions, speed American stockpile purchases from sterling area sources, expand British exports and cut back British imports from the United States, and to grant new loans to India and possibly other commonwealths.

But officials noted virtually all these would require months to have any telling effect on the dollar shortage.

The general conclusion was that for the immediate future, it will be up to Britain herself to cut down probably even further on imports which must be paid for in dollars while doing all possible to step up exports which earn dollars.

1 Dead, 1 Badly Hurt As Children Are Hit By Bus

Chicago, Sept. 3.—(AP)—The 11 Wolf-task children looked forward to a happy Sunday. Mama had baked a cake for Mary's 20th birthday tomorrow.

She asked Theresa, 3, to go to the store and buy a dime's worth of candles. Leona, 5, wheeled permission to go along.

The girls darted into Archer avenue at Loomis street and were struck by a Chicago Transit Authority bus. A fire department rushed them to St. Anthony's hospital where Leona, critically hurt, was taken immediately into an emergency operation room.

For Theresa, it was too late. The dime still clutched in her hand, she was pronounced dead at the hospital door.

25 Cows Get Drunk On Green Apples

Westfield, N.Y., Sept. 3.—(AP)—Have you ever seen a drunken cow?

Veterinarian C. L. Ullrich has treated about 25 of them in the past few days.

He blames it all on Thursday's windstorm. The wind knocked down bushels of green apples. The cows ate them. The apples fermented in their stomachs, forming alcohol.

It happens every year, says Ullrich, but never before has he treated so many bovine hangovers at once. The cure: plenty of warm blankets, sodium thiosulfate as an antidote and adrenalin and caffeine as stimulants.

HOW ABOUT TOLL ROADS?

Are toll roads for express traffic a wise thing or not? The Christian Science Monitor's automobile editor recently delved into this question again. But after querying many state highway engineers he wound up without a clear answer.

The question is no longer theoretical. The famous 160-mile Pennsylvania turnpike has been in use more than a decade and is now being extended east to Philadelphia and west to the Ohio line. Connecticut has two fine parkways, Maine has a turnpike and New Jersey and New Hampshire are about to start building express routes. All these are or will be toll highways.

In addition, Ohio and Oklahoma have authorized commissions to establish toll roads. And Massachusetts, Maryland and Delaware may join the parade because of the traffic pressure from nearby states which operate or are planning such routes.

The Public Roads Administration, supported by numerous state highway officials, opposes the toll superhighway. The arguments are these:

That tolls represent double taxation of motorists, who already pay taxes into regular highway funds.

That toll roads compete with, duplicate and occasionally even parallel existing routes, and thus are usually wasteful projects.

That the glamor attaching to these spectacular highways tends to divert attention from the more commonplace modernization and maintenance needs of established roads which are just as vital to the traffic system.

Toll road backers admit the extra taxation, deny there is duplication, and insist the existence of expressways need not impair the rest of the highway network.

Supporters contend that turnpikes and parkways mean faster, safer travel and that these advantages fully justify the cost to the motorist, especially in hilly, mountainous sections of the Northeast. They add that anyone who doesn't care to pay the toll can always use an alternative free route—with the hazards of trucks, hills and curves.

They argue further that interstate or through traffic really is in conflict with local, short-haul traffic; that limited access routes like the big toll roads actually help both kinds of traffic by separating them. This is their answer to charges of duplication and wastefulness.

As for diverting attention from other roads, the proponents maintain that most highway money already goes for them and that the badly needed superhighways would never be built were it not for the toll charges which come in considerable part from the pockets of out-of-state motorists.

At least in the thickly settled, heavily traveled northeastern states, the price in motoring comfort, speed and safety seems well worth paying. And besides, traffic realities are giving the critics a hard time of it; the toll road network is stretching farther every year.

THE UNFORGOTTEN MAN

There are many ways a vice president may escape the oblivion generally associated with his office. Henry Wallace took trips and made an endless round of speeches. President Truman acquired a certain fame as a piano player while occupying the runner-up spot. Vice President Barkley is taking another tack: romance.

No one seems to be sure whether this romance is real or imaginary. But it is certainly keeping Barkley out of the ranks of forgotten men. It appears to have supplied him and his friends with enough gag material for the full four-year term, whether or not it has any basis in fact.

Barkley loves to tell a good story. Is this his biggest one yet?

RAINBOW PICNIC TO BE HELD TUESDAY

A potluck dinner for members of the Order of Rainbow for Girls, their mothers and board members will be held Tuesday at 6 p.m. at the Masonic temple.

Following the dinner a Rainbow meeting will be held. There will also be a meeting of the Mothers' circle at 7 p.m.

VEEP TO ST. LOUIS
Paducah, Ky., Sept. 3—(P)—Vice-President Barkley said tonight he would visit Mrs. Carleton Hadley in St. Louis Sunday, but he didn't know what time or how he was going. His last reported meeting with Mrs. Hadley was Aug. 14, when she attended the Barkley day air show here in his honor.

Land Near Literberry
Brings $327 Per Acre

Morgan county land again passed the $300 an acre mark Saturday morning when a 60 acre tract between Literberry and Arcadia was sold at public auction at the court house in Jacksonville for $327 an acre. The purchaser was W. Earl Rexroat of Jacksonville, Route 3.

A six room house in Literberry was sold to Harrison Barber of Literberry on his bid of $1550.

The sale was held by Harlan A. Williamson, executor of the will of Hattie B. Norman deceased.

Merle Beddingfield was the auctioneer and Bellatti, Arnold & Fay attorneys for executor.

A large crowd attended the sale. Bidding was spirited on both the sixty acre tract and the house.

The first bid offered for the sixty acres of land was $252.50 an acre. The price quickly rose to $300 an acre when the bidding slowed down.

Two bidders remained and Mr. Rexroat finally obtained the land when he bid $327.

THE DOCTOR SAYS

Twisting Eyeball
In Plane Causes
Astigmatism

By Edwin F. Jordan, M. D.
Written for NEA Service

The eyeball is shaped much like a sphere. The rays of light come through the circular part of the eye, called the pupil. Any twisting of the eyeball in any plane will cause the rays of light also to become twisted and out of focus.

In all cases of astigmatism there is an inability of the eye to focus the parallel rays of light which enter it. In other words these rays of light do not come together at the same point in the back of the eye. This means that a person who has astigmatism sees things all blurred, instead of having a clear image of what he is looking at; the object appears fuzzy and irregular.

Plane Needs Correction
The correction of astigmatism requires finding out for each eye just what change there has been in the curvature and which plane is out of order. Then the lens for the glasses is prescribed and ground to correct the planes which are in error and to bring the parallel rays of light to a single focal point in the back of the eye so that the image of what is seen again becomes clear-cut.

Skill and training is necessary to find out just what is the matter and to prescribe exactly the type of glasses needed to correct the error. Special instruments are required and in most cases doctors place a drop of atropine or something like it in the eye which causes the pupil to become dilated and makes the examination of the error more simple and more accurate.

It would be interesting to know if astigmatism is increasing, decreasing, or staying the same in frequency. Also, it would be nice to know more about its causes.

Note: Dr. Jordan is unable to answer individual questions from readers. However, each day he will answer one of the most frequently asked questions in his column.

Labor Day Holiday To Be Featured By Boat
Races, Horse Shows

Jacksonville and community headed today toward a double holiday Sunday and Monday with the best prospects for public entertainment on Labor Day in a number of years. Championship boat races Sunday at Lake Mauvaisterre, and four horse show performances Sunday and Monday at the Morgan county fair grounds are expected to attract thousands of persons during the holiday.

Monday will be observed as a complete holiday by all retail establishments. The entire personnel of Jacksonville's factories, shops, offices and stores will be free to observe Labor Day in the way of their choosing.

Many local residents have planned trips for the long week end, but their places will be filled by visitors from other cities who come here to visit relatives, or to attend the special events.

The Jacksonville Boat Club, with grounds fronting Lake Mauvaisterre on East Vandalia Road, has made elaborate plans for staging the Mid-States championship boat races Sunday afternoon. Ten races have been scheduled among a large entry list of speedy crafts. The boat club will hold a fish fry in connection with the races.

At the county fair grounds everything is in readiness for horse show performances Sunday and Monday, where shows will be held each afternoon and night. Entries have been made by the leading individual owners and stables from throughout the state. The horse show will be staged by the Jacksonville Saddle Club and Morgan County Agricultural Fair Association.

Valuable prizes will be awarded to winners in more than 30 classes and events.

The horse show promises to be one of the most outstanding in the mid-west. Entries, which numbered 124, were far more than had been anticipated.

The Elm City Bus Lines Company has arranged to provide special service.

Mud Is Studied For U. S. Army

Ithaca, N.Y. — (AP) — A team of Cornell scientists is studying mud for the U. S. Army. They have found some hitherto unrecognized forces at work in common dirt. The purpose is to learn to strengthen soil without tons of cement or other mixtures. Ever since men used mud to make dwellings most everyone, including engineers, believed that soils made of particles of the same sizes, acted about the same. But clay soils with particles of exactly the same sizes may behave differently. In some clays the tiny particles are held in position by forces that act at a distance. These forces presumably are electrical. Recently a similar force acting between living particles has been discovered by biologists. Differences in mineral composition affect the behavior of clay particles. Many forces originate at the surface between a particle and water around it. Through these forces, fine clays may have a large influence on the solidification of a mixture. Clays also can change their strength, according to what contaminates their surfaces.

THE DOCTOR SAYS Right Treatment Of Hysteria Is Often Challenging

By Edwin P. Jordan, M. D. Written for NEA Service

We have all heard or perhaps used the expression "Don't be hysterical." Usually this admonition is given to a person who is emotionally upset and is laughing or crying too hard or showing an uncontrollable fit of rage. As soon as such a person gets control over his emotions he becomes perfectly normal. This is not the meaning which doctors place on the word when they speak of hysteria. Hysteria from the medical viewpoint is something quite different. It is used to describe a condition which usually cannot be controlled by conscious effort. The patient with true hysteria has disturbances in sensation, perhaps convulsions, or is unable to move certain muscles. In hysteria, an attack of convulsions may be started because of some emotional situation. The convulsions allow the victim of hysteria to escape from a difficult situation. Of course, not all convulsions are caused by hysteria and they must be distinguished from the convulsions produced by epilepsy or from other nervous conditions. Skin Unable To "Feel"

The change in sensation often present in hysteria is a most interesting condition. The ability of some part of the skin to "feel" is generally lost entirely; a pin can be stuck deep into that area without causing any pain. The treatment of symptoms of true hysteria is often difficult. The cause of the mental crisis must be sought and studied. Gradual persuasion and re-education is helpful for some, but other methods must be used on many occasions. The successful treatment of hysteria is a challenging and difficult problem. It cannot always be successfully solved.

October Events Planned By Home Bureau Board

Plans for several October activities of the Morgan-Scott Home Bureau were made at a meeting of the executive board recently with Mrs. Harold Joy presiding. The Home Bureau membership drive will take place the first two weeks in October, and the recognition tea in honor of all new members will be held October 17. The arrangements committee in charge of the tea was appointed by the advisory board, and includes the following members: Mrs. Robert Shaw, decorations; Mrs. Fritz Hammer, refreshments; Mrs. A. Unland, dining room; and Mrs. W. G. Watt, favors. The annual joint meeting and bazaar will be held at that time. Oct. 27, Mrs. A. B. Applebee will speak of her experiences on a recent trip to Europe. Each Home Bureau chairman is asked to present a brief report of her year's work for the bulletin publication. Members of the executive board will make oral as well as written reports at the meeting. The board voted a donation to the state treasurer for the foreign visitor project. The plan enables a rural woman of a foreign country to visit rural districts of the United States. Mrs. E. E. Dunham, west central district director, gave a brief talk on "Selling Home Bureau Membership."

QUESTION: What is the cause of sores on my feet which look like blisters and water comes out of them when they break? They are also itchy.

Sallie Gurley Becomes Bride Of Leo Hermes

Local Girl Weds Alexander Man Saturday Morning

In an impressive wedding ceremony which took place Saturday morning at 9 o'clock at the Church of Visitation in Alexander, Miss Sallie Gurley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Halbert Gurley, 203 East Chambers street, became the bride of Leo F. Hermes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred E. Hermes of Alexander.

Rev. Father Robert J. Eagar received the vows before an altar adorned with white chrysanthemums and fall flowers, flanked by glowing tapers. The acolytes were James Eck and Joe Hermes.

Preceding the nuptial Mass, the Processional by D. Ronkers-C. Rossini was played by Miss Elizabeth Bender, organist. "Ave Maria" by Eben H. Bailey and "Pans Angelicus" by Cesar Franck were sung by Mrs. Leonard Kramp and Mrs. Joseph Doyle, accompanied by Miss Bender.

Given by Father The bride, given in marriage by her father, was gowned in white bridal satin, fashioned with fitted bodice, accented with a square yoke of sheer net trimmed in bead embroidery and outlined with a fold of satin. The sleeves ended in points at the wrists and the full skirt, made en train, featured a modified bustle of satin loops.

A Juliet cap with seed pearl trim held in place the finger-tip veil of illusion. The bridal bouquet was a showered arrangement of white carnations, centered with a white orchid. As her only jewelry, the bride wore a string of pearls, gift of the bridegroom.

The maid of honor, Miss Rose Mary Hermes, sister of the bridegroom, wore a gown of ice blue marquisette over satin, styled with a bertha of self-colored imported Chantilly lace, which also edged the bouffant skirt. She had matching gauntlets and headpiece of silk marquisette. Her bouquet was of showered pink roses.

Richard Hermes, brother of the bridegroom, served as best man. Ushers were Francis and Vincent Hermes.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Gurley wore a printed silk crepe dress of black with matching accessories. The bridegroom's mother chose navy blue with black accessories. Each had a corsage of white carnations.

A breakfast for members of the wedding party and the immediate family was held at the Dunlap hotel.

During the afternoon, a reception was given at the home of the bridegroom's parents, with 100 guests in attendance.

The three-tiered wedding cake was cut by the couple, assisted by Mrs. Josephine Stillwell of Waverly. Serving was done by Miss Bertie Betts of Peoria, Miss Lillian Hermes and Miss Ida Walker of St. Louis.

To Reside Here As the couple left on their wedding trip, Mrs. Hermes was wearing a navy blue crepe dress with matching accessories and the orchid from her bridal bouquet. Upon returning, they will reside at 510 North Prairie street.

Mrs. Hermes was graduated from Jacksonville High school and was previously employed by the W. T. Grant Co.

Mr. Hermes, a graduate of Routt High school, is now engaged in farming. He served one year with the U. S. Army.

Moscow—(P)—The Moscow Kremlin is only one—and of course the most famous among its many kremlins. A "kremlin" in old Russia was a fortified center of a town, usually erected on a hill or elevated area, and walked with wood piles or brick. It was the center of defense of the city—and in the early days often contained the whole city—when the Mongols, Tatars or other enemies attacked. In connection with a general campaign to restore historical monuments throughout the country, in many centers restoration work has been undertaken on local kremlins.

THE DOCTOR SAYS One Rare Disease Led To A Magic Cure And Romance

By EDWIN P. JORDAN, M. D.
Written for NEA Service

You probably never heard of myasthenia gravis. It's a very rare condition whose cause is still unknown but its treatment, if not cure, has been enormously improved. There is a real medical miracle story in connection with the treatment.

It begins with a rather typical description of the malady given by an anonymous patient recently in the British Lancet. Her cure was the "miracle" mentioned above.

The patient was 18 years old in 1925. She first noticed seeing double and felt fatigued. After several months of this, while she was ironing a dress she suddenly found that she could not hold up her head which kept dropping forward. Soon thereafter her knees started giving way underneath her at odd times.

Just Another Try!
In February 1935, 10 years after the first symptoms began, the patient's fiancé, who was a medical student, told her that he had something new for her to try. Her first thought, she said, was "Oh bother! Another injection and another false hope."

"I submitted to the injection," she said, "and within a few minutes began to feel very strange. When I lifted my arms, exerting the effort to which I had become accustomed, they shot into the air. Every movement I attempted was grotesquely magnified until I had learned to make less exertion. I had simply regained relatively normal strength—it was strange, wonderful, and at first very frightening." The drug was neostigmine which the patient continued to take almost every day for the next 14 years.

In the summer of 1937 the patient married her medical benefactor. It was a happy ending to our story.

24-D CAN DESTROY THISTLES
Des Moines—(P)—Although Canada thistle is resistant to 24-D, the weed can be eradicated with repeated applications, an Iowa state extension professor says.

A. L. Bakke, research professor in the botany and plant pathology sections of the Iowa Agriculture Experiment Station, says an application of 24-D when the thistles are in the bud stage and most susceptible, will destroy the tops and many of the roots.

He says mowing at the bud stage, followed by two applications of 24-D the next year, has reduced old stands of thistle by more than 90 per cent. If the farmer desires to complete the job in one year, says Bakke, and soil sterilization isn't important, sodium chlorate can be used. Bakke recommends its application at the rate of four pounds per square rod.

Melba Leefers Becomes Bride Of Robert Reeve

Miss Melba Marie Leefers, daughter of Mrs. Mildred Leefers and the late Lloyd Leefers of Carlville, and Robert Reeve, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Reeves of Jacksonville, were united in marriage on Sunday, Aug. 21, at 2:30 p.m. at the St. Paul's Evangelical church in Carlville.

A double-ring ceremony was used by the Rev. R. Hohman, who officiated. The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Dale Leefers of Jacksonville. Mrs. Dale Leefers, sister-in-law of the bride, and Charles A. Reeve of Rock Island, brother of the bridegroom, served as their only attendants. Dean and Erloyd Leefers, brothers of the bride, were ushers.

For her wedding, the bride chose a street-length dress of green moire taffeta with brown accessories and a corsage of orchids. The dress was fashioned with a fitted bodice, low neckline and a full skirt.

The matron of honor wore an identical dress of green taffeta with brown accessories and a corsage of Cavallier roses.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the Evangelical school hall for about 75 relatives and friends. Mrs. Edward Taylor, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Dean Leefers and Mrs. Erloyd Leefers, sister-in-law of the bride, assisted in the serving.

Mr. and Mrs. Reeve departed on a short wedding trip following the reception. Upon their return they will reside at 203a West Beecher avenue.

Music Supervisor Accepts Position At Carrollton

Carrollton—James Rutledge of St. Louis has accepted the position of music supervisor in the local high and grade school and will also reorganize the municipal band.

Rutledge is a World War II veteran and is a graduate this year of the Ludwig School of Music and Washington university. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Rutledge of St. Louis, former Patterson residents. Mrs. Rutledge is the former Ruby Wilkinson.

Rutledge, who is married, will begin his work in the local school Tuesday.

Miss Nina Ford has been serving as parttime music supervisor in the local school for the past two years, one year because of the inability of the school board to secure a permanent teacher and last year to fill the vacancy in that department caused by the death of Harold Lewis, who was killed in an automobile accident shortly before Christmas.

The schedule will be as follows: Monday, 7-9 p.m., junior high; Tuesday, high school; Wednesday, special groups; Thursday, young adults; Friday, junior high and high school; Saturday, high school and young adults.

The schedule, which serves to segregate the different age groups, varies slightly from that in effect last year.

It is planned to follow the same practice of holding Saturday night dances for high school youth and young adults. The dances are expected to get under way about the first of October.

All young people in the community, including those attending public, rural or parochial schools, are invited to attend the Youth Center on the night specified for their age group. All those over 18 years of age are included in the young adults age group.

Wednesday night is set aside for special groups in cooperation with the Ministerial association, which is planning a series of church family nights.

The Wisconsin law permits the taking of only one muskie each day, and the fish must be at least 30 inches in length to be a legal catch.

Mr. Winters was accompanied to Wisconsin by Mr. and Mrs. Charles McDewitt.

Helioputer Used To Pakistan Reports Little Industry

Leopoldville, Belgian Congo—(P)—The first helicopter to appear in Central Africa has arrived at Leopoldville. It will be used by four Americans to photograph wild life in the Belgian Congo. Roy M. Butcher of San Jose, Calif., and M. W. Carter of Los Angeles are heading the expedition. They are assisted by Jack Greenbald, a Hollywood cameraman, and Berkeley Vineyard.

The direction of Congo national parks has forbidden the Americans to fly over national parks. It is feared that the hovering plane might scare game and that young animals would be separated from their mothers to die of hunger or be preyed on by other animals. Ordinary planes have swept low over the game but the authorities claim they have quickly and do not hover in the way the helicopter does. The fast moving planes do not have time to really separate the animals. After touring extensively through the Congo the photographers will leave for Kenya by air.

MUSEUM TO HOUSE BONN GOVERNMENT OFFICE

Bonn, Germany—(P)—Some officials of the new German Federal Republic will have stuffed lions, prehistoric mammoths and rare butterflies as neighbors. They'll all be together in the Alexander Koenig museum in this first capital city of Western Germany.

Bomb-battered Bonn is woefully short of office space. New buildings are blossoming amid war ruins. But it will be years before enough space is available to house all the ministries of the infant republic. If they stay here permanently, so one ministry probably will settle in the museum. It will have one wing—and the relics of the past will have what's left.

WHAT IS THE DIFFERENCE

Between a BUMPER FARM CROP AND A BUMPER TELEPHONE CROP

To the Telephone Company
Telephone costs to the Telephone Company increase as the number of telephone calls you make increases. More calls equal more labor costs and more equipment costs to the Telephone Company.

To You
The calls you can make at a fixed rate are unlimited on your local telephone service. Long distance calls are at rates, the trend of which has been down for the past 25 years. So, even though the Telephone Company may have a bumper crop in number of calls, its revenues and returns do not increase in proportion to the amount of business.

Yet your Telephone Company is utilizing its facilities as never before to give you a bumper telephone crop at very small returns to itself.

GRAINS MOVE OVER NARROW PRICE RANGE IN QUIET DEALINGS

Chicago, Sept. 3—(P)—Grains moved over a narrow price range in quiet dealings on the Board of Trade today. The market did not have much of a trend, but relative weakness in the September corn contract was apparent. It fell more than a cent at one time.
Cash corn arrivals here today totaled 150 cars and the receipts on Tuesday will be heavy as they will include arrivals on both Sunday and Monday. The new corn crop was reported as continuing to do well.
However, Broomhall, British grain authority, pointed out "United States corn at current prices is probably the cheapest livestock feed in the world today and already some (European) countries with dollars to spend are buying this grain for shipment from the Gulf of Mexico."
Lifting of an embargo on wheat shipments to four major terminals had no influence on the market. The embargo was placed in effect at the start of the harvest season when big marketings were expected. The four cities from which the embargo was lifted are Kansas City, Kansas; Kansas City, Missouri; St. Louis, Missouri; and East St. Louis, Illinois.

Wheat closed unchanged to a lower, September $2.031-1, corn was 11 lower to a higher, September $1.221-1, oats were 1 lower to a higher, September 681-58, rye was 2-11 higher, September $1.401, soybeans were unchanged to a lower, November $2.321-$2.32, and active hard futures were unchanged, September $12.20.
Preliminary estimated receipts of grain in carlots here today—wheat 16; corn 150; oats 31; rye 1; barley 24 and soybeans 8.
Receipts include 1 car of corn and 1 car of soybeans for CCC account.

Markets At A Glance

Chicago, Sept. 3—(P)—
Wheat: Slightly easier in light trade.
Corn: September weak; cash grain arrivals increase.
Oats: Steady; expect better European demand.
Soybeans: Little changed; trade light.

Chicago Cash Grain

Chicago, Sept. 3—(P)—No. cash wheat.
Corn No. 1 yellow 1.301-314; No. 2, 1.301-314; No. 3, 1.29; No. 4, 1.281; No. 5, 1.25.
Oats No. 1 heavy mixed 701-721; No. 1 heavy white 71-711; No. 1 white 691-701; No. 1 heavy sample red 73.
Barley malting 1.16-154 nominal; feed 86-1.16 nominal.

CHICAGO LIVESTOCK MARKET REPORT

Chicago, Sept. 3—(P)—Hogs, cattle and sheep were quoted nominally steady today.
During the week a brisk demand developed for hogs, which ended 75 cents to $1.00 higher than a week earlier. This more than made up all the loss of the previous week. Closing top was $22.10. The advance was based on limited receipts and higher prices for some fresh pork cuts.
Choice cattle again met a good demand, but other sections of this market was mostly lower for the week. Medium and good grades advanced in the forepart of the week, and then backed down. Top was $31.00 for choice to prime 1166 pound fed steers. It equaled the best price since January.
Slaughter lambs closed the week steady. Eastern order buyers provided the major outlet as the week closed.

House At Orleans Sells For $1,900

A seven room house at Orleans, which for a number of years has been used as a parsonage by the Pisgah church, was sold at public auction Saturday morning to the Orleans Cooperative Elevator Co. for $1,900. Several persons participated in bidding for the property.
The sale was held at the court house by trustees of the Pisgah church with Middendorf Brothers as auctioneers. Bellatti, Arnold & Fav are attorneys for the church trustees.

FULL HOUSE ON NEW COAST GUARD RESCUE CRAFT—The new 186-pound abandon-ship boat being tested by the Coast Guard folds into a package only four feet long and two feet wide. Fully extended, as shown, the craft measures fourteen feet long and six feet wide. A man can hoist the boat to his shoulders and jump over the side, automatically inflating it by an attached ripcord. Sailors of the U. S. Coast Guard are seen climbing aboard the boat demonstrating the stability of the craft at the Rockaway, N. Y., Coast Guard Station. (U. S. Coast Guard photo from NEA.)

ENCORE PERFORMANCE—After Willie Garrison was bitten in the arm by a mule named Bill, an Atlanta, Ga., photographer was sent out to get a picture of the two making up. Just as he was about to snap the peacemaking picture of Willie and Bill, the mule took another bite at the boy. This time he chewed the shirt instead of Willie, but the youngster says, "No more pictures."

46 Report For Grid Workouts At Jerseyville

Jerseyville—Forty-six players reported for football practice at the opening session of the Panthers this week. Coach E. V. Halt and Assistant Coach James Peerman, with the assistance of Raymond Warren of the Jerseyville Grade School faculty, have been working the men into condition with drills each day since August 25.

The first game will be played here the evening of Sept. 16 with Roxana, and one week later the game with Mendon will be staged. The proceeds from this game will be turned in to the Athletic Field Improvement fund.

Among the forty-six players reporting for duty are twelve letter men. They are William Smith, Roger Roth, Kenneth Jones, Roger Bailey, James White, Hubert Hughes, William Reynolds, James Warford, James Thurston and Dale Bridgewater.

The first game away from home will be with Greenfield at that place September 30. The remainder of the season's schedule is as follows: Oct. 7-Carrollton, there; Oct. 14-White Hall, there; Oct. 21, Winchester, here; Oct. 28, Pittsfield, here; Nov. 3, Roodhouse, there; Nov. 10, Pleasant Hill, here.

Brownies Edge Cleveland 4 To 3

Cleveland, Sept. 3.—(P)—With Manager Lou Boudreau on the bench wearing a slipper on his injured foot, the St. Louis Browns again showed their contempt for pennant contenders today and beat the Indians, 4 to 3.

A Ladies Day crowd of 31,782—the paid attendance was 18,236—settled back comfortably as the ninth inning opened with Bob Feller apparently breezing through and leading, 3 to 2.

Feller, however, made the mistake of walking Jack Graham to open that frame. Roy Sievers popped out, but Dick Kokos unloaded a triple to center that scored Graham from first and tied the game up.

Labor Day Leaders Should Win Flag Says History

New York, Sept. 3.—(P)—If the past ten years are any criterion, National and American league teams in first place on Labor Day will clash in the world series.

Since 1939, 75 per cent of the teams leading the National and American leagues on the first Monday in September, have gone on to win the pennant.

The five teams who paced their leagues on Labor Day in the past decade and failed to wind up in the series were the 1940 Cleveland Indians, 1941 St. Louis Cardinals, 1942 Brooklyn Dodgers, 1944 New York Yankees and 1948 Boston Red Sox.

DeBona First In Bendix Race With 470 MPH Average

Cleveland, Sept. 3.—(P)—Husky Joe DeBona streaked home first in the Bendix cross-country dash today to highlight a National Air Races program given entirely to record smashing.

DeBona's victory in the 13th running of the 2,000 mile push from Rosamond Dry Lake, Calif., was made with an average speed of 470.1 miles an hour. The record of 447.9 mph was set by Paul Mantz last year.

Bill Odom, who likes oceans and continents for his records, hung one up in his first try at closed course racing today by winning the Soho trophy at an average of 388.3 mph. He exceeded Tony Le Vior's mark set in 1947 by 28 miles an hour.

Odom has another big race ahead of him—the Thompson 225-mile event on Labor Day for $40,000 in prizes.

But DeBona, who was forced down by fuel shortage last year and finished just over a minute behind Paul Mantz in 1947, said he was finished with racing.

These two performances topped a day in which every speed record open to assault took a lacing. Even the crowd set a record. Air race officials said the 35,800 paid admissions were the greatest total for any opening day crowd since the national was begun, 20 years ago.

The fastest speed of the day was the 529.6 miles an hour averaged by Maj. Vernon A. Ford, of the Air Force, flying a Republic F-84 thunderjet single engine fighter.

Evansville Braves Clinch Three-I League Pennant

Evansville, Ind., Sept. 3.—(P)—The Evansville Braves clinched the Three-I league pennant tonight by beating Terre Haute while second-place Waterloo was losing to Davenport.

Terre Haute, in third place, also had a mathematical chance to tie for the pennant until tonight's defeat.

Chet Nichols pitched and batted the Braves to a 7-2 victory, driving in three runs with a triple in the sixth inning.

The regular season will end Monday and the playoffs will open Wednesday.

Rocky Graziano Making Comeback With Confidence

Summit, N.J., Sept. 3.—(P)—Rocky Graziano talks like the rock of old—the pre-Zale Rock, that is.

The subdued and confused young man who "ran out" on an Oakland fight with Fred Apostoli last winter is gone. Once again Graziano, with flashing eyes and unruly hair, faces the future with confidence.

"Sure, I'll fight Ray Robinson," he said, "or Jake La Motta or Marcel Cerdan. Or anybody. What do I care. Nobody is all right but it's got to be big money."

"No more of them tuneups. Leave them to the birds. If I beat Charlie Fusari I want the best middleweights."

The kid from the lower east side, who has been in and out of jams with the army, boxing commissions and investigators for the past five years, has become a family man.

With Daughter Roxie on one knee and Audrey on the other, Graziano sat on a ring stool while photographers let loose with a barrage of flash bulbs. His pretty wife stood in the background.

Homelessness won't bother Rocky this time, like it did in Oakland. The whole family is staying with him at training camp.

The Rock isn't sharp yet but he's rough. Manager Irving Cohen has trouble persuading sparring partners to stick around.

Seven hundred eighty-nine inches of snow fell in the winter of 1916-17 on Mount Rainier, Wash.

Flowers for banquets should be cut with a razor, states a horticulturist.

St. Louis, Sept. 3.—(P)—The Cincinnati Reds and the St. Louis Cardinals battled to a 15-inning 9 to 9 tie tonight, the contest being called on account of a National league rule prohibiting any inning of a night game starting after 12:50 a.m. A double header will be played tomorrow.

GIANTS TRIP DODGERS

New York, Sept. 3.—(P)—Lefty Monte Kennedy threw a monkey wrench into the pennant ambitions of Brooklyn today as he pitched the New York Giants to a 6-3 triumph over the Dodgers.

Kennedy granted nine singles, walked one and didn't strike out a batter. His mates were his worst enemies as they came up with four errors which led to two Brooklyn runs.

The Giants jumped on starter Jack Banta for four runs in the first three innings and added two more in the seventh at the expense of Erv Palica.

Willard Marshall and Bill Rigney collected five of the Giants' eight hits and drove home two runs apiece to feature the New York's attack.

The Dodgers staged a threat in the seventh, loading the bases with two out but Kennedy was equal to the occasion and got Billy Cox to pop out to end the bid.

Football Briefs

South Bend, Ind., Sept. 3.—(P)—Three injury reports, two of them holdovers, did not brighten the football picture here today as Coach Frank Leahy put his squad through the first scrimmage of the season.

Frank Johnson, Cincinnati senior, who figured to hold down a regular guard position, will be out for three to six weeks, according to trainer Hughie Burns. Johnson suffered a torn ligament of the right knee in a Friday blocking drill.

Also, according to Burns, one prospective sophomore back is out for the season and another until at least late in the campaign. Dave Flood, Pittsburgh halfback, is out for the year as a result of inflamed tendon of the left heel. The injury came from a summer baseball accident.

In addition, Del Gander, Chicago fullback, who had a wrist operation this summer, will not be ready until at least the tail end of the season.

Evansville, Ind., Sept. 3.—(P)—Northwestern's Rose Bowl champions today ground through their first scrimmage of the practice season without any serious casualties.

The No. 1 backfield included Don Burson at quarterback, Ed Tunnicliffe at right half, Johnny Miller at left half, and Art Murakowski at fullback. All except Miller were 1948 regulars. Also cavoring at left half offensively was Loren "Peewee" Day, defensive star last season.

Champaign, Ill., Sept. 3.—(P)—Sophomore halfback Johnny Karras scored five of the varsity's nine touchdowns against reserves in the first Illinois scrimmage of the practice season today.

The 185-pound Karras, former state prep 440-yard champion from Argo, Ill., high school, demonstrated deceptive speed on slashing runs. Sophomore backs Ronnie Clark, Don Stevens and Dick Rakowski also performed well in the two-hour scrimmage.

The first contact drill, however, failed to please Coach Ray Elliott. "I liked their willingness," said Elliott, "but otherwise they were horrible."

Madison, Wis., Sept. 3.—(P)—Wisconsin's football squad "didn't look too bad today for the first scrimmage of the season," head Coach Ivy Williamson reported. He described his Badgers as a "little slow getting underway."

The offensive unit scored five touchdowns against the junior varsity, while the defense team held the JV's and a sprinkling of first squad men to a single tally.

Ann Arbor, Mich., Sept. 3.—(P)—Donald Dufek gave another convincing performance here today to indicate he is Michigan's No. 1 fullback.

In the week's windup scrimmage, the 185-pound blond from Evanston, Ill., was the star of a two-hour session.

Dufek scored three touchdowns and battered his way to half a dozen long gains.

Iowa City, Iowa, Sept. 3.—(P)—Rain curtailed practice for the University of Iowa football squad today. A blackboard drill took the place of an afternoon workout.

Coach Eddie Anderson had nearly the same units running plays inside the fieldhouse later in the afternoon as he had on the outdoor practice field yesterday.

Columbus, Ohio, Sept. 3.—(P)—Ohio State's football squad did nothing in its initial scrimmage today to chill the rising fever of optimism among loyal followers that the Buckeyes are the Big Ten's team to beat.

Coach Wes Fesler frankly expressed his pleasure:

"Our passing was very good. Our running was very good. Our blocking wasn't as sharp as it might have been, but it was good enough for this stage of things."

H. Christenson, St. Paul, Minn., holds the unique championship of being able to carry 17 steins of beer at one time in his two hands.

Seven Vets Bolster Pittsfield Hopes For Another Valley Title

Glenn Smith, popular Pittsfield coach, is surveying his crop of Sauksee football candidates in eager anticipation of another Illinois Valley conference championship. Headed by 7 returning letter-winners from last year's Ivy title holders, Smith's Pittsfield grid turnout is the usual healthy delegation that always marks a Pike county team.

Coach Smith, who achieved statewide notice last winter when he tutored a "sweet sixteen" basketball representative, has compiled a more-than-outstanding football record during a five year reign at Pittsfield.

He grabbed the 8-team loop championship in 1944 and 1945 hands down. His 1946 huskies finished in a first-place deadlock with Roodhouse, wound up a close second to the Railroaders in '47, and then turned the heat on all opposition to finish the '48 season unbeaten and untied.

Play Here On Sept. 16
The Pittsfield meemies make their annual pilgrimage to Jacksonville on the night of Sept. 16 when they tangle with Bob Kraushaar's Crimsons. The Saukees never fail to furnish the local gridmen with top-flight competition.

Rich Zimmerman, a member of Smith's state tournament basketball team last year, leads the list of grid come-backs. The 6 ft. 3 in. athlete was named to a right end post on the Illinois Valley All-Conference football team last season. He's hard to cover on passes and maintains an iron-clutch policy over his position on defense.

Donald Beard, a giant tackle; Stuart Peebles, guard, David Nightbird, guard and Danny McCartney, guard; comprise the remainder of returning linemen. Charles Ferguson and Andy Chaplin are the only backfield letter-winners returning for the '48 campaign.

Doug Mills has asked that Illinois football fans leave their cameras and radios at home when attending games at Memorial stadium. It seems that a conference ruling prohibits the taking of pictures by anyone other than competing schools, and radios are annoying to fellow fans.

We won't speak for football but we get a big kick out of viewing a Cardinal ball game while listening to Harry Caray's colorful adjectives, describing the event, spill from our portable.

On second thought, how are you gonna tell who's got the ball with out the help of the radio announcer guessing right along with the rest of the folks.

Chicago Hornets Clash With 49er's In Frisco Today

San Francisco, Sept. 3.—(P)—Flushed with an opening victory and highly confident, the Chicago Hornets clash with the San Francisco 49ers in an all America conference professional football contest here tomorrow.

Revamped and under the guidance of their new coach, the veteran Ray Flaherty, the Hornets took the measure of the Buffalo Bills, 17-14 in their initial showing last week. The bills, incidentally, won the eastern division title of the conference last year.

As a result of the win, this week mark the first time since the inception of the league that a Chicago team has started in this area with an undefeated record.

The Forty Niners launched their campaign last Sunday in winning fashion. They had to break a fourth quarter deadlock, however, to finish in front of the Baltimore Colts, 31-17.

Chicago, Sept. 3.—(P)—Dixiana Stable's Here's Hoping today joined the ranks of claimants to the 1949 juvenile filly championship by winning the $54,425 Princess Pat stakes at Washington Park.

Here's Hoping, 2 to 1 favorite with a crowd of 21,172, defeated Calumet farm's Duchess peg by a neck in a thrilling stretch drive. Two and a quarterlengths further back came Brownell Combs gray filly, Amiga.

Mrs. Albert Sabath's devotion was fourth in a field of nine.

Charles T. Fisher, Detroit Automobile Body Manufacturer, owner of Dixiana stables, collected $43,175 for here's hoping's victory.

The triumph made her the leading money winning 2 year old filly of the year. She displaced Duchess Peg, the Calumet youngster which went into the six furlong affair at the top of her division with $53,687 earned.

Duchess Peg took a big chunk of money through her victory in the Arlington Lassie stakes, companion piece to the Princess Pat.

First money raised the earnings of Here's Hoping to $72,062. Her other major triumph was on the tomboy stakes at Detroit. She finished sixth in the Arlington classic.

Joseph Hofmann, famous Austrian pianist and composer, created a sensation in New York in 1887, at the age of ten years.

Twenty-one newspapers were published in Idaho Territory before 1884, but only one of the original 21 still is published today.

The Pepsi Cola softball team was feted at a fried chicken dinner at the home of manager Stewart Whitacre Thursday night.

The ball club, currently tied for top honors in the senior "B" league with the V. F. W. nine, consumed 25 pounds of chicken at the affair. Mrs. Whitacre was assisted in the serving by Mrs. Blanche Canuto, Shirley Beavers and Katherine Whitacre.

The dinner is an annual event that has been afforded the softball team for the past six years. Whitacre has managed the club since it was first formed as a junior league team. In the four years they participated as junior leaguers, the Pepis captured first place three years and advanced to the state tournament.

The Pepsi nine has enjoyed noteworthy success as members of the senior "B" league. They finished league play this year with an 812 record which was good for the aforementioned first-place tie. Whitacre's boys over-all season record was 26 wins and 18 losses.

N. Y. Yankees Whip Washington 6 To 0

Washington, Sept. 3.—(P)—Alvin Reynolds was almost perfect today as he pitched the New York Yankees to a brilliant 6-0, three-hit triumph over the Washington Senators.

The victory enabled the Yanks to maintain their 21 game lead over the Boston Red Sox who downed the Philadelphia Athletics.

Reynolds, in posting his 14th triumph and second shutout of the season, never was in trouble. Ed Stewart singled with one out in the first but was erased on a double play.

The righthander held the Senators hitless after Stewart's blow until the seventh inning when Eddie Robinson beat out a hit to rookie first sacker Fenton Mole. Pinch-hitter Sherry Robertson bunted safely in the eighth inning for Washington's final safety.

Three Washington errors aided the Yanks' cause.

STRAUSS VERY ILL
Garmisch, Germany, Sept. 3.—(P)—Richard Strauss, noted German composer, was dangerously ill tonight. The 85-year-old musician is suffering from a heart ailment and kidney stones.

Steps to the Moon

By Adelaide Humphries

THE STORY: Although Gaynel Teare's marriage to wealthy Barry Blairbridge of Detroit would solve her problems, that best her as a breadwinner for a family of four, including herself, her brother and sister, and another. Gaynel is in love with Fritz Fryman, who is not wealthy. She admits she is in love with Fritz and not in love with Barry. But she asks, how can they get married when Fritz can't support a family. "We'll work it out some way together," said Fritz. Gaynel is not afraid any more and they set out for a beach room for hamburgers.

XXIV
Fritz had said they would be. They each at three in the little lunch room. Topped with pickle relish and onion.

Gaynel liked onions, but they did not like her. Nevertheless she took such a huge bite that she choked, so that Fritz had to thump her on the back and summon the proprietor for a glass of water.

"This is her first square meal in three weeks," he explained gravely to the fat proprietor. "You see, we have been trying to live on love. That's why the lady tried to make a meal out of one bite. Did you ever try living on love? Say, before you . . . er . . . acquired your present . . . er . . . position, Joe?"

"Stantissos," the proprietor corrected, his gravity matching Fritz's. "Sure, I lift on love once. When I first comes to this country, wid Marie and our five little ones, also wid us. Love, Fritz, rose now to such heights, supreme that all the chins shook in added emphasis, 'it is de greatest thing in de whole world, loff is. Ain't it so, yes? In de whole world der is nothings like loff, no?'"

"No, Yes," Fritz said, shaking his one chin decorously. He turned on Gaynel, perched on the high stool next to him; his grin was triumphant. "You see!" he crowed. "Think of it. Love fed five—no, seven hungry mouths, just like that! Now will you stop looking for trouble, my sweet? Put your trust in me and the Statue of Liberty."

"You are very much obliged, yes. You like, maybe, another slice of onion?" Gaynel almost choked once more as he went on. "Onion and the garlic, she keeps our five little ones fat and healthy like me."

"I'll have another slice, Mr. Stand-in-louse," Fritz said. "Stantissos." The second correction came with greater dignity. "Onion, she keeps the germs away."

"Not for me!" Gaynel broke in hastily. "Here he is!" Mr. Stantissos presented the onion on the tip of a long knife. "Helps yourself. And thank you. Comes again."

"Thank you," Fritz said, helping himself generously. "We'll come again, all right. When we have our five little ones we'll bring them along."

"WHAT a man you are," said Gaynel, after they were seated on a bench once more, her head on his shoulder because now it was dark, and there were no rubber-necks, animals or people, and the night air was so soft and sweet and she wished this could last forever.

"I knew you were a perfectly outrageous young man the minute I laid eyes on you," she said. Then, signed, "I guess that's why I love you."

He said, "That's a good enough reason. But you're the outrageous one, really. Talking nonsense about not seeing how we can get married, saying you'll leave me if I gain any weight, putting me off whenever I try to pin you down." His arm tightened around her; he drew her closer to him; his lips brushed the waves of her hair.

She said, "You're forgetting we decided there were certain matters we'd have to work out first."

"Why not get married first, then work 'em out afterwards?"

Sinclair Weeks Named To Head 1950 GOP Fund

Washington, Sept. 3—(AP)—Sinclair Weeks, former senator from Massachusetts, was named today to head the republican fund raising to pay for the fateful 1950 congressional campaign.

The party has been running heavily into the red this year. Weeks' task is perhaps the main problem in a vote year that some republicans think may decide whether the party lives or dies.

His title is chairman of the Republican National Finance committee. Weeks was named by party chairman Guy Gabrielson. He succeeds Harold E. Talbot, who resigned Aug. 4.

Up to a month ago, the republicans had spent $444,000 and collected only $71,000.

Talbot told fellow republicans then that he hadn't been able to interest contributors since January when the national committee was torn asunder in the effort to oust Hugh D. Scott, Jr., as chairman.

When Scott resigned Aug. 4, Gabrielson inherited the leadership of a committee divided again—over his own selection.

Scott Livestock Outlook Meeting Tuesday Evening

Winchester—You can make a much better guess about probable fat cattle and hog prices next spring if you attend the Scott county livestock outlook meeting, Farm Adviser Robert Slayton declared Saturday. It is set for Sept. 6, at 8 p. m. at the Winchester American Legion Home.

Every livestock feeder would like to know now just what price he can expect to get next spring when he sells his steers or hogs. But nobody can figure the market that closely so far ahead.

The outlook meeting will give you some "straws in the wind" to help you estimate what market prices may be, the adviser explained. Larry Simerl from the College of Agriculture and Ed Lamb from the St. Louis Producers Livestock Market will discuss the general prospects for beef and hog prices.

They'll explain the outlook for feed supplies and tell about what prices you can expect to pay for protein supplements. They'll estimate the numbers of livestock now on feed and those likely to go into feedlots.

All signs point toward lower livestock prices, the adviser observed. The outlook meeting should help a lot in finding ways to make a fair profit in spite of falling prices.

Swims Channel After Champagne Party In France

Dover, Eng., Sept. 3—(AP)—Fernand Du Moulin, husky Belgian factory owner, breast-stroked across the English channel tonight from a Champagne party in France.

Several hours afterward the battle-scarred veteran was back in France at another Champagne party, where he announced he will try a reverse swim soon—from England to France. He didn't set a date.

The 34-year-old industrialist from Liege, who thumbs his nose at training rules, left the party last night and with a flip farewell plunged into the water at Cap Gris Nez. En route he treaded water to take additional nourishment from a French beer bottle.

The 229 pound Belgian stayed on British soil for only five minutes after completing his swim, then returned to France for a celebration.

Clockers on his boat said he had made the swim in 21 hours and 57 minutes.

He was the second to swim the channel this year and the 28th to cross the treacherous 21-mile stretch of water since Capt. Matt Webb started the sport in 1875.

The U. S. Air Force had 243 war-strength air groups at peak power in World War II.

Boyle's Column Greetings On Labor Day

New York—(AP)—Tomorrow is Labor Day, a holiday for all those who do America's work.

And everybody is off having a wonderful time except—

The cops on the beat, firemen, motion picture operators, telephone girls, utility plant workers, subway track walkers, bus drivers, and pickpockets.

Yes, everybody has a grand feeling of freedom except—

Bartenders, busboys, chambermaids, airplane pilots, bellhops, and mothers.

Oh, sure, everybody is blissfully relaxing from the daily routine except—

Performing bears and other actors, train crews, lifeguards, night club entertainers, waiters (at the Stork club they stand on one foot to give local color to the place), watchmen, dairy cows, and the men who give them a hand.

What a gay day, indeed, it is for everybody except—

Druggists, ice cream cart entrepreneurs, delicatessen owners, Chinese restaurant keepers, hawkeck girls, panhandlers, street cleaners, and men who make a career of taking dogs for an airing.

Even the escalators in the department stores have a full day off. Who doesn't except—

Wireless operators on ships at sea, agents of the society for the prevention of cruelty to animals, nurses, hospital internes,

The man at the morgue, waiting for careless holiday motorists, baseball players, racehorses and jockeys.

Weather forecasters.

Boys and girls trying to swim the English channel, flagpole sitters, and me.

Yes, everybody else is celebrating Labor Day. But who are they—well, there are barbers, floorwalkers, people planning rocket flights to the moon, school children, men who wind eight-day clocks and—

Happy Labor Day!

Shot To Death In Quarrel Over Wife Of Best Friend

Redfield, S. D., Sept. 3—(AP)—A one-legged taxicab driver was shot to death today in a quarrel over the wife of his best friend, a policeman.

The cab driver was Ray Sieben, 30.

The policeman is Maynard Schultz, 24, wounded by a fellow policeman attracted by the sound of firing.

No charges have been filed.

State's attorney Stanton L. Clark said witnesses told the following story of the affair:

Mr. and Mrs. Schultz helped Mr. and Mrs. Sieben move their belongings into a new apartment last night. Considerable liquor was consumed in the process. Schultz took Mrs. Sieben for a brief walk. Returning, he found his wife had "passed out." Her clothing was disarranged. Schultz accused Sieben of taking liberties with her. The pair fought. Mrs. Sieben pulled them apart.

Schultz ran from the house, followed by the Siebenses. Schultz raced to the police station, four blocks away, and obtained his service revolver. Returning to the street he fired four shots. Sieben suffered a flesh wound.

Schultz then turned on one of two patrolmen who had followed him out of the police station. One shot him in the shoulder.

Saves Town By Driving Burning Gas Truck From It

Morland, Kas., Sept. 3—(AP)—A heroic gasoline truck driver last night piloted his blazing vehicle through Morland in a vain effort to save the town from damage.

The driver, George Richmeier, leaped from the roaring tanker minutes before a blast ripped it apart. In the wake of his flaming dash were two automobiles that burned and exploded, two blazing business houses, and a burning string of trees.

No one was injured.

The truck, owned by a farmers' cooperative association, caught fire as it was being filled. Sensing the possibility of a spreading fire and explosion might destroy the town's business section, Richmeier jumped into the truck's cab and sped toward the city limits.

Gasoline pouring from the rear of the tank blazed in streams along the street. The truck struck two parked cars and they burned and exploded. When his truck stalled, Richmeier leaped from his cab. The violent explosion followed.

A billiard parlor, set afire by the gasoline, was destroyed with damage estimated at $5,000. A restaurant was damaged, but firemen saved most of it.

Say Wreckage May Be That Of Ship Reported Missing

New Bedford, Mass., Sept. 3—(AP)—Wreckage which a Coast Guard spokesman said may be that of the scallop dragger gay head, unreported with a crew of 11 since Monday's heavy storm, was found today south of Nantucket Island.

The Coast Guard reported an oar and several planks painted aluminum were picked up by the dragger southern of Wassage shoal buoy.

The 67-foot gay head was painted aluminum. It last was reported off Nantucket lightship, about 50 nautical miles from where the oar and planks were picked up.

A Coast Guard plane was sent out and reported sighting other wreckage, apparently that of a vessel, floating in the area.

The cutter Arundel was dispatched from New Bedford to retrieve the wreckage in hopes of identifying it. It is not expected back at its base until tomorrow.

Kiwanians To Sponsor Civic Drama Festival

A Civic Drama Festival, consisting of three plays which were unusually successful on Broadway, will be sponsored here this season by the Jacksonville Kiwanis club, Charles N. Wright, president of the local service organization, announced Saturday.

Arrangements have been completed, Wright said, with the Civic Drama Guild of New York to present three plays at the Jacksonville high school auditorium with all-star professional casts.

All of the net proceeds realized from the sale of tickets to these dramatic productions will be used to carry out the Kiwanis club pledge of support in building the new Passavant Memorial hospital, Mr. Wright explained.

The dramas to be staged here and the dates of presentation are: Peg O' My Heart, Oct. 15; The Heiress, Jan. 16; Fair and Warmer, May 8.

The first production, Peg O' My Heart, is a heart warming comedy of the trials of an adorable Irish lass who is compelled to spend the summer with her rich relatives. It ran for over two years in New York City.

The Heiress, also an outstanding dramatic hit, is the story of a shy girl who learns the lessons of life the hard way. She becomes bitter and disillusioned with romance.

Fair and Warmer, which will be the climax of the series, is an old success which has been re-written and brought up to date. In its revised version it is one of the most hilarious and entertaining comedies.

It is concerned mainly with a husband who has weakness for weekly visits to the "Mystic Shrine" and a wife who believes him, and a wife who pays weekly visits to the "Woman's club" and a husband who believes her.

Tickets will go on sale Thursday, Sept. 8.
